

EARTHFEST

28th March 2012

A gala performance by pupils at Victoria Park Primary Academy.

For one night only pupils from across the school took part in a special music and dance extravaganza, bringing an excited audience songs and dances from around the world, with special presentations from internationally renowned performers.

The DVD includes the hour long performance, the interval tasting buffet, behind the scenes rehearsals, thoughts from the audience, and our special 'Save the Planet' exhibition.
